

A questionnaire filled by the CASA participants:

Who are you?

Casa Participants, feminists, museolog, genderqueer, anarchist, activists, ...

What would be the keywords to describe the CASA meeting?

EXPERIMENTAL

ACTIVISM - AREAS - METHODS - STRATEGIES - USEFUL LIMITS USEFUL EXCESSES

raining, gray, sunny, gay many others to come out and play many others to make me stay

coffee, wine, politics

confusing, stimulating

Open Consensual White friendship? self-referential

counterknowledges

What was your favorite session? Why?

ARAS roundtable - Many people presented concrete examples of strategies for discussion.

round table on feminism, the ppl created the workshop we created the question broke into groups + had notes + talker system.

No REPLY

(it doesn't MATTER)

feminist activism roundtable

Monday morning

I liked the "EAST CITY" video/presentation, BECAUSE IT INVOLVED ART, ACADEMICS AND ACTIVISTS together

What topics you think should have been more elaborated on?

Racism History / memory

MAYBE COOPERATIVE PROJECTS TO PUT IN PRACTICE

- local activist practices, networks, strategies in exchange w/ research, etc
- feminist approaches
- queer elements in activism / theory

ACTIVE RESISTANCE TO ACADEMIC PRIVATE AND METALANGUAGES
POLITIZATION OF 'PASSIVE' ACADEMIC PURSUITS

I would like if they could be more study cases of actions at the present
visual studies

One sentence of wisdom to take back home from the CASA meeting?

Feminism is for everybody.

The HETEROTOPIA IS NOT A UTOPIA

expect the unexpected.

same... different...
same... different...
same... different...
same... different...

activism is not the opposite of academia

The one who holds the joint should be the facilitator

WHERE LANGUAGE IS INVOLVED, THE MEDIUM IS ALREADY A MESSAGE OF ITS OWN!

What can be done for the 2nd CASA meeting?

maybe in a place outside Europe?

open spaces
workshops

Get other cultural groups into the concept, maybe by information and network work

What was your most fun moment during CASA meeting?

the final forum - "joint" moment.

the closing forum - now I can rest!

The PARTY AT AFRICA

filling in this form!

dinner with some participants at home

INTERVIEWING JUNIUS VA FOR MY HETEROTOPIA MISSION WHEN HE THOUGHT IT WAS ONLY HIM INTERVIEWING ME...

and sitting in the CASA reception desk!!!

Dinner w/ other CASA parti, wine, etc. // visiting the Squats + having meetings in public spaces!

